Total 26 students from Final year B.Pharm & 40 students Second year M.Pharm have attended the session. The primary objective of this Soft Skills lecture is very important because they'll help define if you're a team player, able to build a good relationship with your teammates and your customers.

They also indicate if you're able to evolve and adapt. First session of training began with identifying the differences between CV, resume and bio data. In the training program, the students were taught about some good etiquette to be followed while attending interviews. Tips and guidelines for attending HR interview were also dealt in detail. A mock HR round interview was also shown. Few frequently asked questions and the effective answers for those questions were discussed.

Later on trainers gave tips to write attractive CV also advised what the things to be written in CV. Trainers also focused on what is group discussion, how to take part in group discussion, Dos and Don'ts in group discussion. After giving these tips students were made to take part in group discussions under the guidance of trainers.

At the end of the day program concluded with feedback from students and vote of thanks by Coordinator

Outcome:

Providing soft skills training enables students to “think outside the box” both creatively and critically. Using these skills, they will be able to weigh up their options, make informed decisions, making them more likely to achieve the desired results. Overall it was very effective session for the UG & PG students.
